A WARRANT OF ARREST AND

DELIVERY ISSUED—Gov. Brogden issued a warrant of arrest and delivery, in response to a requisition from the Governor of Georgia, for one

Joseph P. Porter, (alias Flournoy), an escaped convict from Georgia, whose escape from this city was reported yesterday. It seems from the papers in the Governor's possession, and upon which the warrant was issued, that the man Porter in 1874 was a constable in Georgia, and while acting in that capacity he accepted a bribe from a prisoner to allow him to escape, for which offense he was sentenced to a fine of $500 or to hard labor for one year on one of the railroads of that State for 12 months—and not that he was guilty of man slaughter, as stated by him yesterday, which statement was made upon the man's own representations, and by which the circumstances claimed, he elicited sympathy. These were all the facts that appeared in the requisition, but from an officer who has been endeavoring for two years to arrest the man, we learn that he has figured largely in Richmond, Va., in Columbia, S. C., and in Brownsville, Texas, and that he was compelled to leave the latter named State for his complicity with an organized band of depredaters.

Porter made good his escape

from this city Saturday night, and when last heard from was moving in the direction of Wilmington.

P. S.—Since the above was written Mayor Manly has received a dispatch that Porter had been arrested in Wilmington, and the officer who obtained the order of arrest and delivery

from Gov. Brogden has gone to that point to convey him to Atlanta.

After Porter's arrest in Wilmington, where he passed as

J. Frank, he was carried by Henry Hargrett, a former constable, to a special court in that city, under a writ of habeas corpus. A telegram was sent to Mr. J. S. Wise, the officer in charge of the search of the prisoner, and the authorities held him until this morning, at which time he was released with the authority to take him.

NOON DISPATCHES.

Washington—The Doings of the Democratic Caucus.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The message which the President will shortly send to Congress on the Southern affairs will relate the greater part to the late troubles in Mississippi, and the mode of conducting elections in that State, the information having been gathered by persons designated for that purpose.

Col. Lamar presided at the Democratic caucus to day. Browning, of Ohio, and Robbins, of North Carolina, as Secretaries. Mr. Wadsworth, of New York, offered a resolution for the appointment by the Chairman of a Democratic Executive Committee to consist of three Senators, six Representatives, and three electors of the District of Columbia.

Cox, of New York, offered a resolution providing for the appointment by the Chairman of a Committee of 11 members to suggest to the caucus a future meeting such line of policy or action in public measures as would best serve the interests of the country. These resolutions, after debate, were severally agreed to. There was harmony of views with regard to the duty of the majority of the House. All agreed that they should as far as possible effect a re-union of the party, and that the reduction of taxation, the General Revenue, and the economy of the Government should be the primary objects of their action. Much responsibility devolved upon the majority of the House, although the Senate was not politically in accord with them. The country desired the stoppage of corruption and waste of expenditures, and the democracy could not expect the people to stand by them unless they stood by the people.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The Senate passed a bill to extend the duration of courts of commerce, to Alabama. The Secretary of War submitted the report of the Engineers upon improvements of the South Pass, Mississippi. The report was made by Maj. C. B. Conner. The Secretary of War asks for further appropriation to continue the examinations.

House—Blaine introduced his school and religious bills based on the message.

Several bills for the resumption of specie payments; also a bill repealing the bill for resumption in seventy-nine.

Blaine's bill was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Confession of a Passenger to the Blowing up of the Moeet.

BREMEN, Dec. 14.—The Weiser Zeitung this a. m. asserts that a passenger, Thomas, confessed to his intention of destroying the ship Moeet for the sake of the insurance. He will be held, and is implicated others in the plot. The report requires confirmation, which cannot be gained before the end of the judicial investigation, which is now going on.

Domestic Miscellany.

The vote on admitting Pinchback into the U. S. Senate, which has been taken place on Monday in accordance with the postponement in the case from the last session, but although the candidate was present, no official notice was taken of him.

The editor of the Philadelphia Record has been arrested, and is charged with the murder of a man named "Pole's Island." Her crew was picked up.

Additional Donations to the Credit of the University.

NASHVILLE, Dec. 14.—Commodore Vanderbilt has made an additional donation of one hundred thousand dollars to Vanderbilt University, making seven hundred thousand in all.

St. Louis Grand Jury.

St. Louis, Dec. 14.—No new Grand Jury will be organized until next month. No new indictments until then.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.

House.—On call of States the following amendment to the constitution was offered:

By Mr. Blaine, of the proposed amendment to the constitution providing that no State shall make any law respecting the establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, and that no money shall be taken by any State for the support of public schools or derived from any public land, and that no money shall be taken by any State for the support of religious sects, and that no money or lands so devoted shall be divided among religious sects or denominations, making the Presidential term six years, and afterwards ineligible.

By Mr. Darrall, of Louisiana, to amend the act of 3rd March, 1871, incorporating the Texas and Pacific Railroad Company, bill similar to what was introduced in the Senate.

By Mr. Morey, of Louisiana, to remove the political disabilities from all the citizens of the United States, and to preserve an oath of office.

By Mr. Davis, of North Carolina, to repeal the law forbidding the payment of accounts, claims and demands of Southern citizens for quarter masters stores, etc., and appropriating five hundred thousand dollars to pay for the same.

Fort, of Illinois, offered the following resolution, and demanded the previous question:

Resolved, That inasmuch as Representatives in all subordinate appointments under any of the officers of this House, it is the judgment of the House that wounded Union soldiers who are disabled should be preferred. A standing vote on seconding the previous question showed 79 Republicans voting in its favor, and 104 Democrats voting against it. The like general result. The report of the tellers being ayes 90, nays 125, so the previous question was not seconded.

Cox, of New York, then offered the following as an amendment to the resolution and moved the reference of both resolutions to the committee on accounts and demanded the previous question.

Resolved, That inasmuch as the Union of the States has been restored and the citizens thereof are entitled to consideration in the appointment to offices under the Government, the House of Representatives should be a substitute to Fort's.

The speaker replied that he understood it to be offered as an amendment.

stood it to be offered as an amendment.

Starkweather, of Connecticut, made the objection that as the State of New York had been already called, the gentleman (Cox) could not put in a resolution now.

The Speaker ruled that it was too late to make the objection.

Fort said that he tried to make the objection as soon as the resolution was offered.

Hale, of Maine, inquired whether the House had acted on the amendment.

The Speaker: "It has not; that would be acting on the subject matter of the resolution now, which is not the purpose of the amendment."

Cox said, "the original resolution was an act of copiousness, and my resolution is in the shape of an amendment." (Laughter.)

Reagan, of Texas, made a point of order that neither the original resolution nor the amendment was in order; neither of them proposed anything which the House was authorized or required by law to do.

The Speaker overruled the point of order, stating that it was even taken by years and nays and referred in aye 168 nays 102—a strict party vote; so both resolutions were referred to the committee on accounts.

The Speaker appointed as regents of the Smithsonian Institute, Clymer of Pennsylvania, and McCrary of Iowa.

Senate.—Patterson presented a memorial from the Chamber of Commerce and the Mayor of Charleston for an appropriation for the improvement of the harbor of that city.

A resolution calling for a report of unexcused absences, and defalcations was referred to the committee on finance.

The resolution to allow McMillan to withdraw his credentials was taken up; a motion to refer to the committee on elections and privileges was lost, and permission to withdraw was passed by a strict party vote.

Incidentally Louisiana affairs were ventilated. Except as they bore upon Pinchback, to whose case no allusion was made during the discussion. He said he did not believe there was a man in the country, or Senator on the floor, who did not believe the McEnery Government a sham.

The House believed in the soul of Louisiana, and had been kept from his place by usurpation and federal power. There was slight cheering in the galleries, but it was promptly checked.

In Executive session.

Virginia Senatorial Election.—No Result Yet.

RICHMOND, VA., Dec. 14.—The Conservative caucus to nominate U. S. Senator, called at 10 a. m. and proceeded to ballot. Seven ballots, thirty-three in all, were taken with no result. Flournoy has been finally dropped. Tucker, Smith and Stuart were dropped twice each, and Johnston, Goode and Letcher once each. On the last ballot, Goode having been dropped on the previous one, resulted as follows: John W. Daniel 60, elected; Smith 32, the Goode men merely voting for Smith or not at all. The caucus adjourned till after the session of the General Assembly, at which time a formal ballot will be taken for Senator as required by law. Previous to adjourning, the caucus adopted a resolution that in voting for Senator in joint assembly, the Conservatives so scatter their votes as to prevent an election till the nomination is made by caucus.

LATER.

RICHMOND, Dec. 14.—At noon a vote was taken by both Houses for Senator with no result, the members scattering their votes so that the highest number for any person did not exceed 15. Immediately after adjourning, the legislative caucus again met and balloted, balloting on the thirty-fourth ballot, Daniel 60, Letcher 39. The latter was finally dropped, and the caucus adjourned. Judge Christian was renominated. A recess till 4.

LATER STILL.

RICHMOND, Dec. 14.—The caucus reassembled. Christian was withdrawn. Cochran was renominated. On 37 ballots Cochran was dropped the 24th time. On 55th no other nomination was made. Cochran received 65 votes. On 38th Judge W. R. Staples was renominated. Cochran 59, Staples 47. Staples was finally dropped. A spirited but unsuccessful effort was here made to reconsider the rule under which the caucus has been acting since yesterday. After some discussion looking to the adoption of the new rule placing all candidates not finally dropped in nomination and dropping the lowest one in each succeeding ballot until a choice is made, the caucus adjourned, and tomorrow the new rule being withdrawn.

Eleven eligible candidates still remain, to-wit: Goode, Daniel, Johnston, Tucker, Smith, Stuart, Cochran, Christian, Conill and Sheffey. The seven first named are only entitled to one re-nomination.

The friends of Goode, Daniel and Johnston, who are the strongest candidates, are backward in putting their man up for fear of combinations, which, defeating either one, will throw him out entirely; hence the adoption of new rule similar to the one above mentioned is probable.

Whiskey Trials.—Broadhead's Commission—Exeter Reynolds engaged to assist Broadhead.

St. Louis, Dec. 14.—A dispatch from Attorney General Pierpont to District Attorney Dyer says: "The commission of Col. Jas. O. Broadhead as special counsel in the whiskey prosecution has been forwarded on a retainer of 1,000 dollars."

Another dispatch says, the President desires that Ex-Gov. Th. C. Broadhead, Mr. Reynolds' assistant, should be appointed and has declined, but for what reason has not transpired.

Domestic Miscellany.

Adolph Levinger, Attorney for the Uptown Savings Bank in New York, has been arrested charged with having failed to turn over $38,735 collected, which it is said caused the failure of the bank.

While the Universalist Church in Princeton, Mass., was in session yesterday, 800 persons assembled, and a special counsel in the whiskey prosecution has been forwarded on a retainer of 1,000 dollars.

Election for officers of the Union League.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 14.—The following is the result of the election for officers of the Union League held here yesterday: Hon. John P. Verree was re-elected President by 77 majority, the vote standing 501 for Verree to 74 for Edward C. Knight.

Wm. Gellers received 3 votes. All the rest of the members ticket led by J. O'Connell and J. P. Verree for Vice President, and J. P. Verree for Director, with the exception of one or two of the directors is also elected. E. N. Benson of the "Regular" ticket being successful by a small majority.

The "Verree ticket" represented the element which supported the committee of '62 in its action relative to the nominations on the republican ticket last fall, and the "Knight ticket" represented the party which opposed the committee of '62 and endeavored to have its action declared void and unwarranted.

A Bremen dispatch says that the man Thomas who claimed the dynamite which caused the disaster was an American.

A Washington dispatch says that the committee on Tuesday next and adjourn the House on Wednesday to the 6th of January.
